

News from Soha Housing
28 March 2011

A review of social landlords' annual reports rated Soha Housing's as one the best.

The report 'A good start – could do better' by Nick Bliss and Blaise Lambert on behalf the National Tenant Organisations rated only 4 out of the 259 reviewed as meriting 5/5.

Bliss and Lambert said that 'Points of View' was clear and accessible, especially performance information and the way accounts were presented. The report was entirely resident-led: they wrote it and came up with the title as a play on words that they also provided or researched the photography. The result is a brisk, bright record of favourite places and events during 2009-10, including this, taken by Nasreen Razaq Al-Hamdani, an Oxford tenant.
